

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

CORRECTIONS.

(We solicit and appreciate corrections in all cases, but are glad to note that this department is rarely found in the REGISTER.)

Moratorium Law.

By an inadvertence we failed to comply with the request of the contributor of the SYNOPSIS OF THE "SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CIVIL RELIEF ACT" published in the September issue. We quote from Mr. Wicker's letter accompanying the manuscript: "In publishing this synopsis, I desire that a footnote be inserted * * * acknowledging my indebtedness to Mr. Geo. Bryan, Attorney for the Virginia Bankers' Association, whose excellent analysis of the work has been of great assistance to me."

Mr. Bryan's Synopsis was published in pamphlet form on May 10th, just about two months after the act was passed. A mere reference to it will show that it must have been of great assistance to Mr. Wicker.

Life Insurance—Death by Legal Execution.

We have received a letter from Mr. Isador Shapiro, of the Richmond bar, calling attention to the omission of any reference in the article in our October issue on LIFE INSURANCE POLICY AS COVERING DEATH BY LEGAL EXECUTION to Va. Acts 1916, p. 158, and Acts 1918, p. 539. He also notes that the titles of these acts only refer to suicide while the body of each act relates to death by legal execution, which fact it seems was responsible for the omission.